Review Last Week's Memory Verse

"If therefore you have not been faithful in the use of worldly wealth, who will entrust the true riches to you?" (Luke 16:11)

This Week's Memory Verse

"You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another" (Leviticus 19:11, NASB)

This week's opening questions

Week 2:

- Describe your family –married/divorced parents, adoptive/birth siblings, birth order, names and ages
- What was a childhood memory involving a lie that you were told, was told to you or was public that affected you?

This Week's Discussion and Application

From Chapter 8
HONESTY: Absolutely

Every man did what was right in his own eyes. Judges 17:6

Issue

Scripture

Society

Standard of honesty

Absolute

Relative

God's concern about honesty

He demands honesty

There is no God

The decision to be honest or dishonest
Is based upon:

Faith in the invisible
living God can be seen

Only the facts

Question usually asked deciding whether to be honest:

Will it please God?

Will I get away with it?

do the right thing
and it’s never right to do the wrong thing!”

How Do We Escape the Temptation of Dishonesty?

Unless we deny ourselves and live our lives yielded to the Holy Spirit, all of us will be dishonest.

Live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature (Galatians 5:16, NIV).

Curses Reserved for the Dishonest

Alienation from God. For the crooked man is an abomination to the Lord ... (Proverbs 3:32).

Family problems. He who profits illicitly troubles his own house (Proverbs 15:27).

Dead Ends. The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor, the pursuit of death (Proverbs 21:6).

Poverty. Wealth obtained by fraud dwindles (Proverbs 13:11).

Blessings Promised for the Honest

Intimacy with the Lord. For the crooked man is an abomination to the Lord; but He is intimate with the upright (Proverbs 3:32).

A blessed family. A righteous man who walks in his integrity—how blessed are his sons after him (Proverbs 20:7).

Long life. Truthful lips will be established forever, but a lying tongue is only for a moment (Proverbs 12:19).

Prosperity. Much wealth is in the house of the righteous, but trouble is in the income of the wicked (Proverbs 15:6).

Contrast

Society says: You can be dishonest because everyone else is.

Scripture says: The Lord demands absolute honesty in even the smallest matters.

Review Small Groups

This week cover Week 2 Small Group material which is posted online.

Remember the number one principle for an effective small group – there is one speaker at a time and everyone else is all ears!

This Week's "at home" assignment
To be completed before class next week
